About the Employers Club and its privileges

The Employers Club provides organisations with an opportunity to partner with CPA Australia to share in the success of what CPA Australia members have to offer. This is part of our ongoing effort to build lasting relationships with key organisations in the Malaysian business community.

Employers Club members will enjoy the following benefits:

- › greater exposure as an employer of choice for finance, accounting and business graduates
- › access to high-calibre graduates through annual internship program, undergraduate conferences, recruitment fairs, career talks and other recruitment initiatives

- › free online job posting facilities at CPA Australia website
- › invitation to networking luncheons and events attended by senior level professionals in the business community
- › special group discounts for selected CPA Australia events
- › included in the mailing list for all events and workshops organised by CPA Australia
- › advertising in member publications through sponsorship options
- › speaking opportunities at CPA Australia CPD events
- › exhibition opportunities at selected CPA Australia events
- › sponsorship opportunities at CPA Australia events showcasing your organisation's expertise
- › special group discounts for Continuing Professional Development (CPD) programmes

Organisations wishing to take advantage of employer club benefits are encouraged to participate in:

- › providing CPA Australia with the opportunity to promote the CPA designation to newly recruited finance and accounting employees
- › promoting the CPA Program and designation as a choice of professional qualification for finance and accounting employees
- › supporting employees by subsidising or sponsoring the CPA Program and yearly memberships
- › highlighting the CPA designation as a requirement in all relevant recruitment advertisements
- › exploring opportunities for the placement of CPA Australia advertising within the organisation
- › creating an email group of CPA Australia members in the organisation
