

ABOUT THE THIRD AGE NETWORK

THE THIRD AGE NETWORK (TAN) WAS ESTABLISHED IN 2004 BY RETIRED AND SEMI-RETIRED MEMBERS WHO WANTED TO CONTINUE THEIR SOCIAL AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WITH CPA AUSTRALIA.

Currently, there are TAN groups in New South Wales and Victoria.

STAY CONNECTED

THIRD AGE NETWORK (TAN) MEMBERS PARTICIPATE REGULARLY IN DISCUSSION GROUPS, FORUMS AND WORKSHOPS, COVERING ISSUES AND TOPICS THAT MATTER TO THEM.

Recently, TAN members have initiated a program to help tackle elder financial abuse, been involved in a project to match CPA mentors with treasurers of not-for-profits, and contributed to CPA Australia's award-winning business magazine and website, INTHEBLACK.

Discussion group meetings are held five times a year, with a variety of speakers. There is no charge to attend.

Master luncheons (with speakers) are held three times a year.

GIVE BACK TO YOUR COMMUNITY

WHILE YOU'RE WORKING LESS,
YOU'VE NEVER KNOWN MORE.

As a member of the Third Age Network (TAN), you can use your expertise to help others in your community, and mentor young CPA Australia members.

THE TAN'S OBJECTIVES ARE TO:

- Identify, promote and address issues of interest to current and future members of the Third Age constituency.
- Advocate for, support and communicate information on Third Age member issues.
- Act as a forum for professional development, debating and championing of Third Age issues.
- Encourage member retention and participation in discussion and action, to foster and advance issues of importance to the sector.
- Promote targeted discussion groups and undertake other initiatives that increase the value proposition for member retention and participation in the Third Age Network.

CONTINUE A LIFE'S WORK

YOU'VE SPENT A LIFETIME
BUILDING YOUR CAREER
AND HAVE A REPUTATION THAT STANDS FOR YOUR ACHIEVEMENTS.

The CPA Australia designation has been a constant symbol of your professional expertise.

CPA Australia's Third Age Network (TAN) provides members with ongoing learning, networking and professional development opportunities, and supports the transition to working less.

YOUR MEMBERSHIP IN RETIREMENT

IF YOU ARE 55 OR OLDER...

CPA Australia maintains a list of members who are retired or working less than 15 hours or two days per week. If this describes you, you can maintain all the benefits of membership for a considerably reduced fee.

TO BE ELIGIBLE A MEMBER MUST:

- be aged 55 or older.
- no longer be engaged in full-time, gainful employment or business (other than minor part-time activities).
- no longer hold a specialist certificate.

To take up this benefit, apply online to be transferred to the Retired Member List.

IF YOU ARE 54 OR YOUNGER, WORKING PART-TIME OR NO LONGER WORKING...

...you may also be eligible for a reduction in your membership renewal fee.

This is not automatic; apply online for a reduction in your membership fee.
