

PREPARATION OF GROUP ACCOUNTS SERIES

KUALA LUMPUR | 2019

INTRODUCTION

MFRS 10 sets out a single definition of control that applies to all entities and provides application guidance that explains the different ways in which a reporting entity might control another entity. If there is joint-control, MFRS 11 is applied and for situations under significant influence, MFRS 128 is applicable. The key principle is that control exists and consolidation is required only if the investor controls the investee.

This workshop explores the latest Standards dealing with group accounts which includes MFRS 10, MFRS 3 and MFRS 127.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Apply the underlying principles of MFRS 3 business combinations.
- Apply the appropriate consolidation adjustments in line with the revised MFRS 3 and 10.
- Completion of consolidation worksheets
- Disclosure requirements under MFRS 12.

 You are advised to attend BOTH Part 1 to 2 workshops to have a better practical understanding of the preparation of group accounts.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Financial controllers, corporate financial advisors, accountants, finance manager, account managers and financial analysts.
